They had gathered only to pray. When prayer itself becomes the target, faith is proved not by words but by staying.

The Story - Part One

Grammy Award-winning worship group Elevation Worship has earned its 10th career Grammy nomination, recognised in the Best Contemporary Christian Music Performance/Song category for its Platinum-certified hit "God I'm Just Grateful" with Chandler Moore. The nominations for the 69th Annual Grammy Awards were announced on Monday 16 November 2026, with the ceremony set for Sunday 7 February 2027 at Crypto.Com Arena in Los Angeles.

Ten nominations. Say the number slowly, and think about what it represents: a worship ministry from a church in Charlotte, North Carolina, recognised again and again by the music industry's biggest stage, not for a crossover hit or a celebrity collaboration, but for a song about gratitude to God. Thousands of raised hands, a band silhouetted in golden light, and a chorus that millions have now sung in their cars, their kitchens, and their churches.

Released in November 2025 and featured on Elevation Worship's 2026 album SO BE IT, the song has topped multiple Billboard charts, earned RIAA Platinum certification and won the 2026 GMA Dove Award for Worship Recorded Song of the Year. That is a rare combination: commercial success, industry recognition, and a Dove Award from the Christian music community itself. A song can be popular without being honoured, or honoured without being popular, but "God I'm Just Grateful" has managed to be both.

Chandler Moore's presence on the track matters. His voice carries a rawness and a joy that fits the song's message perfectly, and the collaboration between Elevation Worship and Moore has become one of the defining partnerships in modern worship music. When he sings about gratitude, it sounds less like a performance and more like a testimony, and that is why the song has travelled so far beyond the walls of any one church.

Elevation Worship 10th Grammy Nomination: God I'm Just Grateful's Journey To The Grammys

Elevation Worship is the worship ministry of Elevation Church in Charlotte, North Carolina, led by Pastor Steven Furtick. What began as a local church's worship team has become one of the most influential forces in Christian music, with songs sung in churches around the world every Sunday. The tenth nomination is a milestone, but it is also a reminder of how consistently the group has produced music that lasts.

The Turning Point - What Happens Next

The story reaches a life-changing moment that changes everything -- and what seemed like the end is only the middle. Two reports disagree on the numbers, and one question is left unanswered: will the CCTV footage ever come out? Read the full story to find out what happens next.

PERSONAL REFLECTION & DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When gathering to pray carries a real cost, what keeps a community coming together anyway -- and what would keep you coming?

2. The pastor's sister shielded him with her own body and fainted under the blows. What does costly, self-giving love look like in your own family or church?

3. When justice is delayed and a complaint is withdrawn under threat, how do believers hold on to truth without giving in to fear -- or to hatred?
