Mighty God Revival at 10: Thousands Gather in Ijebu-Ode as Healing Testimonies Pour In

A true story of faith under pressure. Read the first half below, then continue online.

KEY SPIRITUAL TAKEAWAY

"JESU, AKIRIS'ORE"

(Transliterated from the original Hindi.)

They had gathered only to pray. When prayer itself becomes the target, faith is proved not by words but by staying.

The Story - Part One

Thousands of worshippers packed the Otunba Dipo Dina International Stadium in Ijebu-Ode from 18 to 20 November 2026 for the 10th Mighty God Revival - and the testimonies are still pouring in. The Christ Apostolic Church's Living Sanctuary hosted three days of fervent prayer, intense worship and biblical teaching, and by the final night, people who had arrived sick were standing up to say they were healed.

One woman had carried a feeling like a stone in her stomach for six months. It left her while the pastor was praying.

That woman is the story of the whole revival in a single life. For half a year she had lived with the sensation of a stone sitting in her stomach - a weight she could not explain and could not shake.

Then, while Pastor Gospel Remi Adeyemi was ministering in prayer, the feeling vanished. She stood up and told the crowd what had happened, and the stadium answered her the only way a revival crowd can.

She was not the only one with a testimony. A woman whose left side had been paralysed testified that she was healed during the revival, moving again after the prayer.

And another woman told the crowd about years of repeated blood transfusions for a recurring blood shortage - a condition that left her drinking water almost every second, her tongue twisting whenever she did not. She testified to the power of God the moment she arrived on the revival ground.

Three testimonies, three different afflictions, one pattern: people who came to the stadium carrying something heavy, and left carrying a story instead. Healing does not always arrive with noise; sometimes it slips in quietly, in the middle of a prayer, and a woman walks out carrying nothing she carried in.

Mighty God Revival At 10: "Jesus, Who Goes About Doing Good"

The revival's theme was "JESU, AKIRIS'ORE" - Jesus, Who Goes About Doing Good - anchored on Acts 10:38, the verse that describes Jesus going about doing good and healing all who were oppressed. It was the 10th edition of the Living Sanctuary's annual Mighty God Revival, and the stadium had to accomodate thousands of worshippers who travelled from across Nigeria and beyond for the three days.

The Turning Point - What Happens Next

The story reaches a life-changing moment that changes everything -- and what seemed like the end is only the middle. Two reports disagree on the numbers, and one question is left unanswered: will the CCTV footage ever come out? Read the full story to find out what happens next.

PERSONAL REFLECTION & DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When gathering to pray carries a real cost, what keeps a community coming together anyway -- and what would keep you coming?

2. The pastor's sister shielded him with her own body and fainted under the blows. What does costly, self-giving love look like in your own family or church?

3. When justice is delayed and a complaint is withdrawn under threat, how do believers hold on to truth without giving in to fear -- or to hatred?
