Lufuno Dagada Releases Live Worship Album The Legacy Continues

A true story of faith under pressure. Read the first half below, then continue online.

KEY SPIRITUAL TAKEAWAY

"Asimuloro / No Eye Has Seen"

They had gathered only to pray. When prayer itself becomes the target, faith is proved not by words but by staying.

The Story - Part One

South African gospel minister Lufuno Dagada has released a new album titled The Legacy Continues, a live worship project that arrived on streaming platforms on Friday, November 13, 2026. The album gathers 13 songs from significant moments in his recent live recording work, presented as a single collection for listeners who could not attend in person. The project grows out of The Final Bow, the large-scale live recording Dagada staged at Moreleta Kerk, an event that drew more than 4,000 worshippers.

Imagine 4,000 voices rising in one hall until the building itself seems to sing. That is the night this album is trying to bottle. Dagada has spent more than three decades leading South African gospel, and this album says the work is not finished, only handed on.

The Final Bow: 4,000 Worshippers At Moreleta Kerk

The Final Bow was the live recording at the centre of this release, and its scale is what makes the album different from a studio project. Songs from that night form the backbone of the new collection, and the recording keeps the atmosphere of the evening, from massed voices to quiet moments of prayer, just as they occured on the night. The arrangements preserve the feel of a live congregation, with extended passages that let the music build like a church service.

Live gospel recordings hold a special place in Christian music because they capture the collective expression of worship, and this one is no exception. The people who were there will hear themselves in the sound. Those who were not there get the next best thing: the full sweep of the night in one place, on Spotify and Apple Music.

The Legacy Continues Tracklist: 13 Songs Of Faith And Gratitude

The 13-track album opens with "Asimuloro / No Eye Has Seen". The song is followed by "Undikhoyo", featuring Esethu Siwe, and "No More Delay", featuring Fafa Segoneco. Betusile Mcinga joins Dagada on "Mbilaelo / Nikela Ku Jehova", and the collaborations keep coming, as South African gospel so often does when a big night becomes a record, as reported in Praise Unlimited Concert Kigali Today: African Gospel Stars at BK Arena October 25 2026.

The Turning Point - What Happens Next

The story reaches a life-changing moment that changes everything -- and what seemed like the end is only the middle. Two reports disagree on the numbers, and one question is left unanswered: will the CCTV footage ever come out? Read the full story to find out what happens next.

PERSONAL REFLECTION & DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When gathering to pray carries a real cost, what keeps a community coming together anyway -- and what would keep you coming?

2. The pastor's sister shielded him with her own body and fainted under the blows. What does costly, self-giving love look like in your own family or church?

3. When justice is delayed and a complaint is withdrawn under threat, how do believers hold on to truth without giving in to fear -- or to hatred?
